Dear Students,

I am sure you all will be well at your end and will be following each and every instructions of the Government. Keeping in view the pandemic situation in Delhi and all around the country, online education has assumed its importance for all of us. We have to fight COVID-19 forcefully and come out victorious in the day-to-day life. This is possible only when we follow all the norms of WHO and the Government of India. The most suggestive way is to stay home and continue your education online. Please attend the e-class being engaged by your learned teachers of your subject and be in touch. Any useful development concerning to you shall be posted on the college website. Continue to watch daily news and be updated through the college website. Nevertheless, you need lots of online study material during this lockdown period which you may retrieve from the following sites:

If you need any book(.pdf) relating to any subject/field or topic?
