

Independence Day Celebrations

To celebrate Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav -75 years of India's independence, the Arts and Culture Society of Zakir Husain Delhi College, organised a Cultural Programme on 13th August, 2022. Guest of Honour Prof. Sushma Yadav, Prof. Anil Aneja, Chairman Governing Body and Prof. Amit Bardhan, Treasurer, Governing body inaugurated the event. The Independence Day programme started with lighting of the lamp with beautiful Sanskrit Shlokas in the background and Saraswati Vandana. The guests were honoured by Principal Prof. Narendra Singh, senior faculty members and staff members. The Principal then addressed the audience. This was followed by the college tarana without which any function at Zakir Husain Delhi College is incomplete.

The audience were held captivated by the mesmerising Bharatnatyam and Kathak jugalabandi by the student members of Nrityathi, classical dance society of ZHDC.

To add to the zest, there were melodious patriotic group songs by the members of the college music society Dhwani.

The fervour did not end here. Aman, the theatre society of the college staged a play title "Gagan Damama Bajiyon" on the life of Shaheed Bhagat Singh. The play once again reminded all of us of the struggles and sacrifice of the freedom fighters of India.

The members of the western dance society Dhanak performed a group dance commemorating the contribution of Captain Vikram Batra, the Paramvir chakra awardee, during the 1999 Kargil war.

Suchitra, the fine arts society of ZHDC exhibited the hues of patriotism through their painting exhibition.

The National anthem was sung by all the participants at the end. The whole atmosphere was mesmerised by patriotic songs at the end of the program which was enjoyed by guests and every member present over there. The cultural programme filled everyone with a sense of nationalism.

Dr Safina Begum, a faculty member in the Urdu Department of our college has composed a poem on the theme and recited it during the celebrations of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav.
