On September 9, 2022, Zakir Husain Delhi College (M), University of Delhi and Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR), Ministry of External Affairs organized A Theatrical Presentation by Tbilisi Akhmeteli State Drama Theatre Group of Georgia to celebrate Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. The Georgian guest was traditionally welcomed by applying Tilaks and were offered garlands by the students of Zakir Husain Delhi College. The event commenced with one of the classical Dance performances of North India- 'kathak' by Ishita kandpal. The main event was a live Drama written by Nikoloz Tsulakidze (A very famous Georgian Actor), directed by Lasha Gogniashvii and performed by Georgian theatre artists. The moral message of the drama was to save nature and its flora and fauna. It also reflected that animals also have emotions and care for nature. The drama portrayed that a human who protects mother earth is the one with all humanity in his heart. The Georgian artists were accompanied by Mr Darpan Parasher, an Indian Origin running an NGO Cultural Diversity for Peaceful Future in Georgia. He is dedicated to cultural integration between India and Georgia.

Principal Prof. Narendra Singh felicitated all the members of the Georgian Theater group. Lastly, A formal vote of thanks was delivered by Prof. Gurpreet Singh Tuteja (Joint Dean, Students Welfare, University of Delhi), followed by the closing of the event with the National Anthem of both India and Georgia. The programme ended with high-energy packed dance performances on the songs of Indian and Georgia popular songs.
