Given under are few important guidelines in regard to the PCP Classes for the Counsellor/Resource Person for which he/she should take care while participating in Personal Contact Programme:

- The commencement time and finishing time of a period must be in compliance with the Time-Table in the Teachers Attendance Register and Students Attendance Sheet.
- The columns of the Students Attendance Sheet should be duly filled on each sheet by the concerned teacher (If more than one Attendance Sheets are used for a period the columns must be filled on each sheet).
- In B.A. (Programme)/B.Com cases attendance of each student will be valid for one period only of his/her concerned subjects. Attendance marked by student for the same subject on the same day in more than one period will be invalid for other periods except very first period.
- If the teacher is deputed for more than two periods but not more than four periods on the same day there must be a break of one period after two successive periods. Non-compliance of this will result in deduction of remuneration as per rule.
- If the number of students in a class is less than five after two successive PCP days no payment will be made for such classes from the third PCP day and onwards.
- The remuneration @ Rs.1000/- (Rupees one thousand only) per period will be paid to the eligible Resource Person/Counsellor subject to a limit of Rs. 25000/- per month.
- The marking of attendance of the Resource Person/Counsellor in the Attendance Register after elapse of concerned date will not be admissible and remunerations against such attendance will not be payable.
