From The Principal's Desk

Zakir Husain Delhi College has played a pioneering role in the promotion of educational endeavors since beginning in the years of the seventeenth century. Our proud institution was at the heart of the Delhi Renaissance the nineteenth century, that efflorescence of modern learning in a major intellectual and cultural Centre of India.

Our scholarly lineage is a distinctive and syncretic tradition of learning, and the spirit of accommodation is demonstrated by the diverse backgrounds of our students. The motto of our college is “Live by Love” and our hallmark is the spirit of harmony.

Education at our institution is not merely restricted to the pursuit of information. We aim for holistic development of the individual under the guidance of our dedicated and talented faculty members. The pursuit of academic excellence goes hand in hand with a thriving cultural and productive scene, the DELZAK is a vibrant intellectual ferment, that aims at building confidence, incubates values like cooperation and encourages effective communication through words or artwork of MUN's, we are committed to cultivating a culture of civil conversation in our community and, as a result, contributing to a genuinely global society.

I am confident that this event is going to be a grand success. All the very best to the participants.

Sincerely,
Prof. Narendra Singh

Convener's Letter

"The power of diplomacy lies in its ability to transform adversaries into allies and conflicts into cooperation." With this profound notion in mind, I am truly delighted and filled with immense pride as I announce Zakir Husain Delhi College's forthcoming endeavor, ZMUNC'24, an electrifying Model United Nations conference scheduled on 13-14th January 2024.

Diplomacy, as the art of handling people with sensitivity and effectiveness, comes to life in the realm of Model United Nations, offering a multitude of advantages and invaluable opportunities. It encourages us to step into the shoes of others, fostering cultural sensitivity and understanding. It goes beyond mere debating; it is about nurturing leadership skills, promoting teamwork, and instilling a deep commitment to the cause of making the world a better place.

I extend my heartfelt congratulations and sincerest wishes for success to all ZMUNC'24 participants, hoping the skills gained become pillars of strength in your future endeavors. Additionally, it fills me with immense joy to convey my warmest felicitations to the dedicated Delzak team members, and I earnestly wish them great success in their meticulous orchestration of this grand and momentous event.

Sincerely,
Dr. Nisha Jaiswal

Letter from the Secretary General

Dear Esteemed Sponsors,
Distinguished Delegates, and
Esteemed Friends of ZMUNC'24,

I am delighted to extend a warm and formal invitation to you for the much anticipated Zakir Husain Model United Nations Conference 2024.

ZMUNC'24 is not merely a gathering of minds; it is an intellectual voyage, a crucible for future leaders. It is the place where knowledge meets confidence, and passion meets purpose. Our General Assemblies are designed to ignite your intellectual prowess, demanding innovative thinking and fostering collaborative spirit. As Secretary General, I firmly believe that in the realm of diplomacy, we must "speak softly and carry a big argument." It is within the fervor of debate, the power of persuasion, and the art of negotiation that we find solutions to the world's most pressing issues.

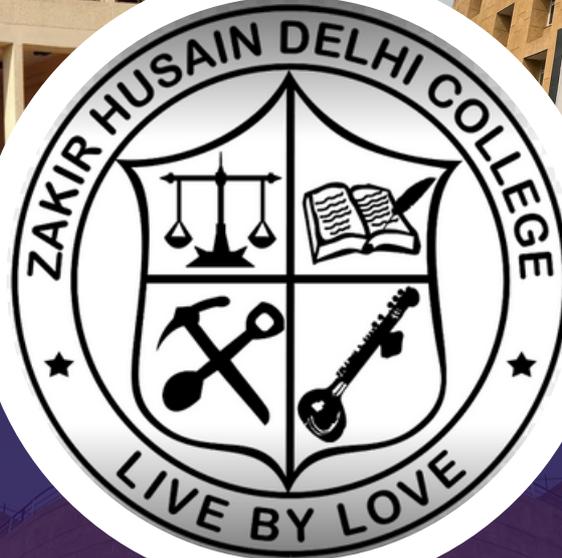

In the words of Albert Einstein, "The significant problems we face cannot be solved with the same level of thinking we were at when we created them." ZMUNC'24 challenges you to elevate your thinking, broaden your perspectives, and collaboratively tackle global challenges.

Join us at ZMUNC'24, and let us together embark on this transformative journey where the formalities of diplomacy coexist with the sharp wit of engaging discourse. Two days filled with stimulating debates, laughter, and unforgettable learning experiences await you.

We eagerly anticipate your presence at ZMUNC'24, where the future of diplomacy is crafted, and where lasting friendships are forged.

Warm Regards,
Aishwarya Arora
Secretary General

About Zakir Husain Delhi College

Zakir Husain Delhi College (formerly known as Zakir Husain College, Anglo Arabic College, and Delhi College), founded in 1696, is the oldest existing educational institution in India, and is a constituent college of the University of Delhi, accredited with NAAC 'A' grade. The origin of the Zakir Husain Delhi College can be traced to the closing years of the 17th Century, with the founding of a Madrasa by Ghazi Uddin Khan, one of the Emperor Aurangzeb's leading Deccan commanders and the father of the first Nizam of Hyderabad. The upheavals that weakened the Mughal empire during the 18th century, resulted in the closure of the Madrasa in the early 1790's, but, with the support of the wealthy citizens of Delhi, an oriental college for literature, science, and art, was established at the site in 1792. Instruction was provided in prose, literature, rhetoric, logic, philosophy, jurisprudence, astrology, and medicine.

In 1824, Delhi College was engrafted onto this institution by the British East India Company's government, ZHDC is committed to achieve excellence and highest academic standards in education. The Institute has an excellent infrastructure in support of high-quality teaching, learning and research activities. The Institute has been established to cater to the growing needs of higher education in the country. The world class physical and academic infrastructure developed by the Institute, essential for imparting quality technical education, facilitate the teaching learning process and delight the students, faculty, corporate visitors, and parents
